

Letter of Acceptance to the Master programme of Product Development - Specialisation in Assistive Technology (MASTech) for Engineers (120 credits) at School of Health and Welfare, Jönköping University, starting on August 21, 2023

Dear Gagan Raghu Gowda, 2001-08-06, HT23-16012515

We have the pleasure to confirm that you are admitted to the Master programme of Product Development - Specialisation in Assistive Technology (MASTech) for Engineers at the School of Health and Welfare with a duration of two academic years (August 21, 2023 – June 8, 2025) of full time studies.

You who did not submit a Bachelor's diploma with your application must bring this in original, along with an official translation (if applicable), when you arrive here in Jönköping in August. Information on how and when to submit these documents can be found on www.ju.se/en/admission/conditional\_master.

Studies

You will be studying towards a Master of Science (120 credits) with a major in Product Development, specialisation in Assistive Technology. More information about your programme and courses can be found at www.ju.se. Further academic questions concerning the programme will be handled by your programme manager upon arrival.

Starting date

The academic year 2023/2024 starts on August 21, 2023 and runs until June 9, 2024. You are expected to arrive either during the weekend before August 21 if you wish to utilise the pick-up service (more information on Arrival/Pick-up will be sent out later) or, at the latest, on August 21 in time for the compulsory roll-call.

Contact admissions.office@ju.se before August 21 if you have a serious conflict to arrive in time.

If you do not attend the compulsory roll-call and have not been granted late arrival by the Admissions Office, you will lose your admission to the programme at Jönköping University.

Tuition fee

The decision on admission is conditional to you paying the first instalment of the tuition fee for your studies. By paying the tuition fee you confirm the offered place. You will therefore receive payment instructions for the fee for the first instalment of the programme tuition fee within a few days. The tuition fee must have reached our bank by the due date on the invoice, so take into account that international bank transfers will take several days. If payment has not arrived by the due date, your admission will be cancelled. If you have any questions about the payment please contact tuition@ju.se

See the Regulations for fees at Jönköping University for information about the tuition fee and the refund policy at www.ju.se/student/en/fees.

Residence permit

Information on how to apply for residence permit for studies can be found on <https://ju.se/en/study-at-ju/application-and-admission/visa-requirements.html>.

Insurance

This Letter of Acceptance can be used as both proof of admission as well as proof of limited emergency insurance. Jönköping University holds the following insurance policy for tuition-fee-paying students:

Swedish state insurance for fee-paying students in Sweden (FAS) 2015-01-01 (Kammarkollegiet)

Policy holder: Jönköping University

Insurance policy number: 556487-2744-0005

The insurance is valid for as long the student is studying at Jönköping University, as well as two weeks prior to the start of studies and two weeks after the end of studies. It is also applicable during direct travel between the home country and Sweden. More information about the insurance can be found on www.ju.se/insurance.

Student Accommodation

The University arranges accommodation for our international students. The Accommodation Office will contact you with more information later on.

Cancelling your admission

If you need to cancel your admission for any reason, it is important that you notify admissions.office@ju.se as soon as possible.

A warm welcome from all of us at Jönköping University.

Best regards,
