ANTI RAGGING COMMITTEE

Date: 12-06-2019

Annual report for the academic year 2018-19

- The institute had a strong urge to maintain discipline both in college and hostel, so it formed that Anti-ragging committee on 17-09-2018.
- This committee of faculties met regularly to discuss about any unusual incidents, to collect students review and form new measures.
- In college and hostel premises displays were posted about committee and its objectives.
- Regular visit was given at scheduled time by members as well as police constable and records were maintained as per time table to notice any misbehaviour by students.
- Dr. Mahesh Kumar G, Professor and HOD, Civil Engg. addressed final and pre-final year students on 27-09-2018. During the orientation session, guidelines were given to students how to behave and maintain cordial relations with junior students.
- The patrolling by committee members ensured that batch mates of 1st, 2nd, 3rd and final years will have a harmony and safe environment in campus.
- Some surprise checks were also done at canteens and hostel for better implementation of committee objectives.
- Inputs were noted by first year students during their first week of college.

Counselling sessions with various set of students reported NO such incidents in the academic year 2018-19.
